Whereas: Our goal is a government that builds relationships with parents, teachers, workers, and community members, and

Whereas: We firmly believe that the dialogues between Ann Arbor School Board Trustees must be transparent, open, and continuous, and

Whereas: To build trust and cooperation between members of the Democratic Party in Washtenaw County and some of our elected officials, and

Whereas: We must take a high road approach to our economy and resist privatization and efforts to undermine working families and their institutions.

Therefore be it resolved that: We call on the sitting School Board Trustees to cast their votes for a candidate who will unite our community rather than divide our community.
