SAM BAGENSTOS

Candidate for Michigan Supreme Court

Planned Parenthood Advocates of Michigan Endorsed Candidate

Samuel Bagenstos has been a lifelong fighter for Americans' civil rights, serving as a civil rights lawyer for over 20 years. He served as Principal Deputy Assistant Attorney General for Civil Rights in the US Department of Justice under Attorney General Eric Holder and President Barack Obama. He has also served as a law clerk to US Supreme Court Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg.

Sam has argued 4 cases before the US Supreme Court, winning victories that strengthened the rights of disabled individuals, of pregnant workers and the constitutionality of the Americans for Disabilities Act. Sam is currently suing on behalf of Flint residents for harm they incurred as a result of the Flint Water Crisis.

Sam has always been a champion for everyday people. Just a few years ago, Sam sued the United Parcel Service (UPS) on behalf of Peggy Young, a truck driver who was forced to take unpaid time off and lose her health coverage during the duration of her pregnancy. Sam and Peggy sued UPS and won.

Sam has always helped those who could use an extra hand, like 4 year old Ehlena Fry. Ehlena suffers from cerebral palsy and benefits from having her service dog named Wonder help her around. Unfortunately, Ehlena's school protested her having Wonder with her, and so Sam sued on her behalf, taking the case all the way to the US Supreme Court. Ehlena and Sam prevailed, winning a huge victory for the rights of persons with disabilities all over the U.S.

When the Flint Water Crisis occurred, Sam knew that Flint families deserved accountability for their injuries. Sam scored a huge victory in federal court to allow residents affected by the water crisis the ability to hold officials accountable for their wrongs.

What does Michigan need? COI

GOVERNOR & LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

GRETCHEN WHITMER & GARLIN D. GILCHRIST II

Gretchen Whitmer has been a fierce fighter for everyday Michiganders throughout her entire career. As Senate Minority Leader, Senator Whitmer fought on a bipartisan basis to expand healthcare coverage to hundreds of thousands of Michiganders. Medicaid expansion, known as Healthy Michigan, has provided 680,000 more Michiganders with health insurance while saving the state millions of dollars a year. It is this progressive pragmatism that she and her running mate, Garlin Gilchrist II, will bring to solving Michigan's most pressing problems.

- Fixing the Roads: Gretchen will establish a state road bank to help fund necessary repairs to ensure our roads are repaired. She will push for legislation to hold contractors accountable for the work they do, ensure that heavy trucks pay their fair share and raise penalties on those who violate the law.
- Reducing the cost of Auto Insurance: Gretchen knows that Michigan's auto insurance rates are ridiculous and have to be reduced. She will fight to prevent insurance companies from being able to use your address, level of education, and credit score in determining your rate. She will fight to ensure that those individuals and companies bilking the system are held accountable and that the savings from reforms is returned to consumers.
- Protecting Healthcare and Reducing the Cost of Prescriptions: Gretchen has fought for years to protect and expand healthcare coverage. She will continue that fight and also work to reduce the cost of prescriptions, because she knows that no person should have to choose between food and medication.
- Improving Education and Skills Training: A proud mom, Gretchen understands the importance of education. She knows that today's economy demands degrees; from trades schools, community colleges or universities, but that the cost of these degrees is hurting Michigan families. That's why Gretchen is proposing to make community college debt-free, improve connections with trades programs and invest more in both higher education and K-12 schools.
- Our Environment and Drinking Water: Gretchen is proud of our Great Lakes state. She enjoys spending time outdoors, up north and on our waterways. She also knows how important it is for all Michiganders to be able to trust that the water coming out of their tap is clean and safe to drink. She will fight to fix our aging water infrastructure and protect the Great Lakes, our inland lakes and rivers.

SECRETARY OF STATE

JOCELYN BENSON

Jocelyn Benson has been fighting to expand voter participation and election security for much of her professional life, even writing a book about the important role that Secretaries of State play in the process. Jocelyn started her career fighting for the civil rights of others at the Southern Poverty Law Center. She served as Dean of Wayne State Law School, and most recently, has worked with professional athletes to improve race relations. Jocelyn knows that a good Secretary of State can play a vital role in preserving Michiganders' right to vote and also in making their day to day lives better at the SOS branch offices.

30 MINUTE
Guarantee

- Expanding Voter Access: Jocelyn will fight to expand early and absentee voting, making it easier for Michiganders to participate in the election process.
- Protecting Election Security: Jocelyn will fight to ensure that our votes are counted accurately, safely and securely.
- Reducing the wait at SOS offices: Jocelyn's 30 minute guarantee will help ensure that your time isn't wasted when you go to register your car or renew your license.

ATTORNEY GENERAL

DANA NESSEL

Dana Nessel is a lifelong fighter for the civil rights of Michigan consumers. As an attorney, Dana championed the rights of LGBTQ families to adopt children — a case that helped open the doors to the United States Supreme Court decision to legalize marriage equality. Dana has always been a consistent champion for everyday Michiganders, serving as an assistant prosecutor, defense attorney, and advocate for civil rights. Dana will continue fighting for the rights of everyday Michiganders as Attorney General.

- Protecting Michigan's Environment: as Attorney General, Dana will sue to shut down the Line 5 pipeline that runs under the Mackinac Straits. Dana understands the damage that an oil spill in the Great Lakes would cause, and she will ensure that this isn't a risk Michigan continues to take.
- Fighting for Michigan Consumers: Dana knows that Michigan consumers haven't been getting a fair shake for a long time. She will aggressively pursue predatory lenders, shady corporations and fraudulent individuals who are driving up our everyday expenses.
- Regulating and Legalizing Cannabis: Dana supports the legalization and regulation of cannabis, knowing that both go hand-in-hand. She will fight to ensure fair regulation that keeps it out of the hands of children.

COMMON SENSE PROBLEM-SOLVERS

UNITED STATES SENATOR

DEBBIE STABENOW

Senator Debbie Stabenow has been fighting for everyday Michiganders since her election to the US Senate in 2000 and long before that in local and state government around her hometown of Lansing. She is Michigan's first woman US Senator and also now Michigan's senior Senator, serving alongside Gary Peters.

Senator Stabenow has long been a champion for a number of issues important to Michigan's economy and Michigan jobs, but none more than agriculture. She has served as Chair of the Senate Agriculture Committee and also a sponsor of the latest United States Farm Bill, which regulates the agriculture industry. Senator Stabenow was also instrumental in working with President Obama to rescue the US auto industry from the brink of collapse, in working in a bipartisan manner to secure support for the new Detroit-Windsor international bridge, and in securing aid for the people of Flint. Senator Stabenow knows that Michigan's most precious resource is its people, and has been working to improve their lives since her first day as an Ingham County Commissioner.

7TH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT GRETCHEN DRISKELL

Chelsea, Dexter, Milan, Saline cities, Augusta, Bridgewater, Dexter, Freedom, Lima, Lodi, Lyndon, Manchester, Northfield, Salem, Saline, Scio, Sharon, Sylvan, Webster, York Twp

As the granddaughter and daughter of Navy Veterans, Gretchen Driskell grew up learning that we have an obligation to give back to our community and that the most valuable things in life are always worth standing up for. These lessons are what's driven Gretchen to spend her life working for family and community – and it's why she's running for Congress.

After starting her career in public accounting, Gretchen moved to Saline, Michigan, for the opportunities it could provide her family. As a young mother, she saw a need for a recreation center so that families like hers had a gathering place - so, she helped lead the efforts to build the Saline Recreation Complex, which celebrated its 25th anniversary this past year.

During her 14 years as Mayor of Saline, Gretchen passed 14 balanced budgets, and prioritized and improved local schools. Most of all, she is proud that during her tenure she worked to attract new ventures to diversify Saline's economy and to build Saline's reputation as a place to do business.

In 2012, Gretchen was elected to the Michigan Legislature, representing rural Washtenaw County as its State Representative. During her time in Lansing, she worked for better rural broadband access, made sure that her community was at the top of the list for infrastructure improvements, and worked to make it easier for small businesses to access local capital. Throughout her career, Gretchen has always felt that it was important to get out and hear from people where they live. That's why during her time as State Representative, she talked to voters every day and heard their stories by knocking on more than 25,000 doors.

Today, Gretchen continues to live in Saline and is the proud mother of three children: Ryan, Matthew (an Ensign in the U.S. Navy), and Marielle. She is the proud grandmother of Chloe.
